At first I felt fine, before I realized
In your eyes I'm a demon, right?
Without an ending, I'm still pretending
Like I attended your funeral today

Overconsumption of your compassion
Put on perfume of iniquity
Now, I could never dream of doing anything
In such a way like you did to me

So, give me a taste of sovereignty
A lantern in the night (Lantern in the night)
Get me away from history
From the cycle's bitter light (Cycle's bitter light)
From existing out of spite (Existing out of spite)

Now do you hate me?
Are you afraid of me?
Are you able to feel culpability?

Come forth and kill me
Bow down and worship me
Take your time, all we have is eternity

Now with a new start
Broken and torn apart
Nothing in me resembles a human heart

My name is unknown
Something I've never told
On my own I declare:
"I don't wanna go home"

I've got a cutthroat delight (Up on a high)
As we carouse while you writhe (Caught my eye)
I'll put your fear in my drink tonight, tonight
I'm chewing up and spitting out your pride

You got an iron dye where only God'll find
I took a photo of shame to remember you by
True colors make a pretty-picture memory
Returning less than you gave to me

So, give me a taste of sovereignty
A lantern in the night (Lantern in the night)
Get me away from history
From the cycle's bitter light (Cycle's bitter light)

Existing out of spite
I'm existing out of spite
I know infinity

She howls with the past
As they gouge each other's eyes
I know duplicity
Who once was a child
Born in villainy

I know infinity
She howls with the past
As they gouge each other's eyes
I know what hides in me
If only you knew the same

Now do you hate me?
Are you afraid of me?
Are you able to feel culpability?

Come forth and kill me
Bow down and worship me
Take your time, all we have is eternity

Now with a new start
Broken and torn apart
Nothing in me resembles a human heart

My name is unknown
Something I've never told
On my own I declare:
"I don't wanna go home"

All we have is eternity
Can you feel culpability?
